Luke 16

This seems to be a continuation of Jesus' teaching session started in Luke 15. If so, there would be listening publicans and _____, Pharisees and _____, along with His faithful disciples. Jesus now moves to the subject of _____. He realizes the strong hold riches can place on the heart of man. He speaks first to His disciples and then to the need of the Religious Leaders. I. Jesus Teaches about Wealth to the Disciples

- Parable of Cheating Steward

"And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward (Lit. - _____; and the same was accused (Lit. - _____) unto him that he had wasted his goods. [2]And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward. [3]Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig (Lit. - _____); to beg I am ashamed." Luke 16:1-3

The Shrewd Steward's Problem:

"I am _____ what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. [5]So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? [6]And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down _____, and write fifty. [7]Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore. [8]And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely:…" Luke 16:4-8a

The Shrewd Steward's Plan:

The lord's Commendation:

- Jesus' Application

"…for the children of this _____ are in their generation wiser than the children of _____. [9]And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon (Lit. - _____) of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations. [10] He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much. [11]If therefore ye have not been faithful in the _____ mammon, who will commit to your trust the _____ riches? [12]And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own? [13] No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye _____ serve God and mammon." Luke 16:8b-13
